RE: Richard M. Elbert v. City of Kansas City Missouri, et al., Case No. 11-428-CV-W-HFS

To Whom It May Concern:

Our office received an envelope, addressed to me, that appeared to be mail for me. When our front desk receptionist opened the envelope, however, the summons indicated it was actually for "Detective Robert Gibbs C/O Lauren Horsman."

The plaintiff in this matter would like to add Robert Gibbs as a defendant. However, Detective Gibbs is not yet a party to this case, so I cannot accept service for him. Mr. Elbert is required to personally serve Mr. Gibbs – it is insufficient for him to send a summons to me. Accordingly, I have enclosed the summons and complaint with this letter, as there was no service.

Please let the return of service reflect that the address for Detective Gibbs was invalid and that there has not been service. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at (816) 889-5025.

Sincerely,

Lauren A. Horsman
